ROB THE DEAD.
This Will Be About the Next Move Made on the North Side.
Thieves Infest the Vicinity of West Trimble
Street.

There seems to be a gang of thieves in the northwestern portion of the city. Night before last the home of Mr. Silas Jones, near Thirteenth street and Bernheim avenue, was entered and a quantity of lard, bacon and ham stolen, and last night burglars got into the residence of Mr.
W. A. Downs, on West Trimble and stole all of his canned goods, and a few other articles. There is no clue.
Several other houses in the locality have recently been robbed, also, and the police are determined to catch the thieves sooner or later. The residents say they expect to hear of the marauders robbing the dead at Oak Grove next.

English Comment On the Signing of the Protocol—American Isolation is Gone Forever, and She Now Becomes a Factor in the Affairs of the World.

Scripps-McRae Service.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—The Pall Mall Gazette in commenting on the signing of the protocol says: America will henceforth have an undisputed place among the great powers which make history in the civilized and uncivilized world. Her day of self-contained isolation is gone forever. She may advance a little faster or a little less fast to meet her manifest destiny, but she stands today on the threshold of a new life.

Regarding the intertwined interest of Great Britain and the United States in China the Gazette further says: We can only say the latest news from China does not argue well for the maintenance of the newly restored peace among nations in which all are rejoicing today.

The Globe in commenting on the restored peace says: The ending of the war marks the final disappearance of Spain from the New World.

PRESIDENT M'KINLEY PROCLAIMS PEACE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The president issued the following proclamation last night: By the president of the United States, a proclamation: Whereas, by a protocol concluded and signed August 12 by Wm.
R. Day, secretary of state of the United States, and his excellency, Jules Cambon, ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary of the Republic of France, respectively representing for this purpose the government of the United States and the government of Spain, the United States and Spain formally agreed upon terms upon which the negotiations for the establishment of peace between the two countries shall be undertaken, and, whereas, in said protocol it is agreed that upon its conclusion and signature hostilities between the two countries shall be suspended and notice given as soon as possible by each government to the commanders of its military and naval forces; now, therefore, I, William McKinley, president of the United States, do, in said protocol, declare and proclaim on the part of the United States, a suspension of hostilities, and do hereby command that orders immediately be given through the proper channels to the commanders of the military and naval forces of the United States to abstain from all acts inconsistent with this proclamation. In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 12th day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, of the independence of the United States one hundred and twenty-third.

(Signed) WM. M'KINLEY.

By the President, WM. R. DAY, Secretary of State.

A copy of the proclamation has been cabled to the army and every commander. Spain cabled her commanders like instructions last night.

WILL TAKE NO CHANCES.

The Government Will Increase Its Coast Fortifications at Puget Sound, on the Pacific Coast.

Will Do This in Anticipation of Any Complications That May Arise Over the Philippine Islands.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 13.—In view of complications that may possibly arise in the settlement of the Philippine question, the government is pushing work on the fortifications in Puget Sound. A battery similar to those at Morrostone Point and Admiralty Head, will be speedily erected at Point Wilson. The government will take no chances on the Pacific coast, but will have all important points equipped with the most modern fortifications and armaments.

BAD INDIANS.

Are Out On an Elk Killing Expedition and Won't Be Arrested.

Cheney, Wyoming, Aug. 13.— Governor Richards has been informed by the game warden at Pyle that forty Hanoock Indians from Idaho are killing elk near Jackson's Hole and have successfully resisted arrest thus far. Secretary of Interior Bliss at the request of the governor has ordered the authorities at Fort Waska to drive the Indians back to the reservation.

MOVEMENTS IN PORTO RICO.

Ponce, Aug. 13.—The Fourth Ohio moved yesterday from Guayama, and now has its camp at the scene of Moaday's skirmish. The outposts now hold the positions that were occupied by the Spanish. Dynamite guns have been sent to Guayama from Ponce for General Wilson.

Ponce, Aug. 13.—A lieutenant of the Spanish army has been arrested at Arroyo as a spy.

LICENSED TO MARRY.

W. T. Shaffer, a steamboat engineer, and Miss Carrie Copeland, of the county, were licensed to marry this morning, the marriage to take place today. The groom is 30, and it is his second marriage, and the bride is 23.

GOOD TIMES ARE COMING.

A New Prosperity Awaits the American People at the End of the Present Complications.

Commercial and Manufacturing Associations All Over the Country Predict the Advent of Better Times.

Scripps-McRae Service.

New York, Aug. 13.—The Journal publishes a number of dispatches from the heads of commercial and manufacturing associations from all parts of the country indicating that with the ending of the war prosperity will be revealed to the American people. Porto Rico and Cuba will open up new fields for American products and the construction of the Nicaragua canal will make an epoch in American commercial history. With the close of the war and the thoughts of the people turned to legitimate trade, a great business revival unrivaled in our history is predicted.

SPAIN REJOICES.

All Classes Glad That the War Is Over and Are Ready for Peace.

Scripps-McRae Service.

Madrid, Aug. 13.—Spain today is rejoicing over the termination of hostilities and a profound feeling of relief pervades among all classes of people. It is not believed that there will be any serious uprisings, and at least none that cannot be easily put down.

Scripps-McRae Service.

Madrid, Aug. 13.—The Official Gazette publishes an order permitting the exportation of wheat and flour after August fifteenth.

CERVERA VISITED THE SAILORS.

Portsmouth, Aug. 13.—Admiral Cervera arrived at 12:30 today and is visiting the Spanish prisoners at Seavay Island. The meeting of the men with the former commander was very affecting.

WILL MOVE THE CAMP.

Preparations Being Made to Move the Boys to Knoxville and Lexington.

Scripps-McRae Service.

Chattanooga, Aug. 13.—Everything is ready for two divisions to move from Chickamauga to Lexington and Knoxville. Preparations for the actual departure will be made on arrival of Gens. Sanger and McKee at camp sites, McKee going to Lexington and Sanger to Knoxville. This will be about the 20th inst. Gen.
Breckinridge thinks the army will be mustered out at Chickamauga very soon, since peace has been practically concluded.

HENSLEY G. HARRIS.

He Has Had His Trial, Has Been Exonerated, and Is Still a Lieutenant in Paducah's Co. K.

The Trial Lasted for an Entire Day—The Only Charge Was Taking a Drink or Two
With Three Friends.

It will be good news to the many friends of Second Lieutenant Hensley G. Harris, of Co. K, to learn that at his trial by court martial he was completely exonerated. The trial lasted one day, according to a letter which arrived today.

It is understood that the only charges against him were for taking a drink or two with three friends.
These were the only ones preferred, at any rate, and the court martial exonerated him and he is still second lieutenant of the company.

THE CUBANS ACCEPT.

Agree to Abide by the Protocol
And to Cease Hostilities.

Scripps-McRae Service.

Washington, Aug. 13.—The war department has been advised through the Cuban Junta that the Cuban insurgents will accept the terms of the peace protocol, and hostilities on their part will cease.

POSSIBLE TROUBLE

May Arise Over the Evacuation of Cuba and Porto Rico
by the Spanish Troops.

The Protocol Does Not Preclude the Possibility of Further Hostilities, Though They Are Not Probable.

Scripps-McRae Service.

Washington, Aug. 13.—There is a serious element of uncertainty about the prompt evacuation of Cuba and Porto Rico by the Spanish troops.
The Spanish government may refuse to evacuate those islands until it is found whether the Paris tribunal can reach a satisfactory settlement of the other questions at issue such as the Philippines. It is recognized that the protocol does not preclude the possibility of further hostilities and that is merely a tentative agreement, though a renewal of hostilities is not at all probable.

THE FATHERS ARRIVE

Messrs. Hancock and Williams Come to Assist Their Sons.

The Boys Are in Jail, Charged With Stealing a Cow.

Messrs. W. H. Hancock and A. W.
Williams, of Boone, Webster county, arrived in the city this morning to see their sons, Jeff Williams and Allison Hancock, who are in jail charged with cow stealing. They were held to answer a few days ago for stealing a cow from Mr. Derrington, of the Clark's River section. Officers Ullman, Dugan, Block and McClean apprehended the boys in the act of bringing it to town to sell. They confessed after being arrested and waited with questions. The matter was telegraphed to a Louisville paper, and the boy's fathers read and at one time had to be restrained from violence.

Scripps-McRae Service.

Arrived in Paducah, Ky., today for daylight to visit them at the jail. Both are well to do old farmers, intelligent looking, and own good farms in Webster county.
They were admitted to the jail, and when they saw their sons, who had been away from home for many months, they broke down and wept.
It was a very touching scene, and seem to affect the boys, as well as the sorrowing old farmers.

The old fellows were advised that there was little for them to do except to hire a lawyer and get the boys off as light as possible, to have the offense reduced to petty larceny, if possible. The boys claim they were drunk when the offense was committed. The farmers have employed Major Harris.

The two young men were released on bond this afternoon, their fathers becoming security, and they left for home. The bond was $200.

THE PUBLIC OPINION

Will Decide the Vexed Question of the Retention of the Philippine Islands.

No Agreement Has Been Made With Spain as to Their Disposition—The Terms of the Protocol.

Scripps-McRae Service.

Washington, Aug. 13.—Public opinion will be the judge which will decide the vexed question of the retention of the Philippines. President McKinley has not yet made up his mind and no advance agreement whatever has been made with Spain.
The terms of the protocol are such that the United States waves no right to any portion large or small which she may conclude to retain of the Philippines.

C. W. Huntley, the Well Known
I. C. Special Agent, Kills a Woman.

The Last Case Against Him Is Said to Be a Very Serious One.

Greenville, Miss., Aug. 13.—C. W.
Huntley, special agent of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad, who has killed two men in Leland, this (Washington) county during the past twelve months and was acquitted in each case on the plea of self-defense, is in jail here again, charged with shooting this morning Mamie Adair, an octogenarian, at her place on Central avenue.

The woman is shot in the neck and will probably die. She is now speechless, but immediately after the shooting she told her story, which, it is alleged, makes a serious case against Huntley.

It is said that Huntley has killed other men besides the two at Leland, but always in self-defense.

KILLED IN ALABAMA.

Geagen, Sr.—No Particulars.

Mr. Richard Geagen, Sr., last night received a telegram from Birmingham, Ala., announcing that his nephew, Will Coughlan, was shot and killed. No particulars were given.
The young man was employed by the Southern Railway.
He formerly resided here, was about 20 years old and was quite well known. At one time he was employed on the Morning Register.
The remains will be conveyed to Louisville for interment.

SIGNING THE PROTOCOLS.

Washington, Aug. 13.—The protocols were signed at twenty-three minutes past 4 o'clock in the cabinet room at the executive mansion.
There were present the president, Wm. R. Day, secretary of state; John B. Moore, assistant secretary of state; A. A. Ades, second assistant secretary of state, and Thomas W. Cridler, third assistant secretary of state.

At 4 o'clock the French ambassador, M. Jules Cambon, was announced. He was accompanied by his secretary, M. Eugene Thiebaut.
The protocols were in duplicate and were prepared in alternate columns in the English and French languages.
The French text, being the one to be furnished to the government of Spain, was signed first by M. Jules Cambon, representing the government of Spain, and afterwards by Mr. Day, representing the government of the United States.

The other copy, for the use of the government of the United States, was signed first, by Secretary Day and subsequently by the French ambassador. Upon the conclusion of these formalities the seals of the secretary of state and of the French ambassador were affixed by M. Thiebaut and Assistant Secretary Cridler.

The president lost no time in putting the provisions of the protocol into effect. No sooner had the signatures of the two diplomats been affixed to the document than he issued a proclamation, which had already been prepared, announcing a cessation of hostilities.

the relatives of the Kentuckians who have occupied distinguished positions in sister states, asking that portraits of them be furnished. One of the Lexington, Ky., Aug. 13.—Gov.

Col. Colson says he knows nothing of his alleged boom for governor, and refuses to talk about it.

SPAIN MAY SELL.

New York, Aug. 13.—The Journal's Paris cable says: Spain is considering favorably the proposition to sell the Philippines, as it is believed the United States will take only Manila and the adjacent territory.

Sagasta, it is reported, favors the sale, which would relieve the necessity of sending troops to keep down the insurgents. French officials are encouraging the plan, though admitting the danger of European dissension over it.

The latest suggestion of France and Spain is for the United States to buy the Philippines, thus settling all complications.

TWO THOUSAND

Dons Buried in Two Days—It Was a Terrible Slaughter of Spaniards.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 13.—Dr. A. J.
Diaz, of Havana, passed through the city yesterday on the way to Mexico City to visit his family.

Dr. Diaz was exiled from Havana by Gen. Weyler at the outbreak of the war on account of his expressions in favor of the Americans, and he obtained a position on Shafter's staff as a surgeon.

Dr. Diaz said he has been at Santiago with the American army until eleven days ago. He was in the American lines at El Caney, and personally superintended the burial of more than 2000 Spaniards on July 4 and 5.

INHUMANITY OF WAR.

Terrible Word of the New Guns in the Recent Break Riots in Italy.

A Milan correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung writes: "The effect of the new guns proved during the recent break riots to be of a terrible description. By far the greater part of the wounded are doomed to die. The real number of those killed during the riots cannot remain a secret much longer, as too many are in the secret; certain it is there are considerably more than the official number. And the number of the wounded is extraordinarily large. Regarding the action of the new Ballesta guns, I have obtained the following information from medical men in and out of the army. Experiments had been made in Florence and Milan by firing at large tin boxes filled with wet bran. In the specific weight and density of which about equals that of the human brain. At a distance of 500 to 600 yards the boxes exploded in many places, flying in all directions.

"The explanation of this effect was believed to lie in the extreme velocity of the new projectiles. Where the bullet finds a strong obstacle, it imparts its movement, transferring it to the obstacle, on to the resisting object. The contents of the box—or of the skull—seek forcibly to escape in all directions and thus break the box or the skull. This explains why all who received a wound in the head present the same terrible spectacle. In all of these cases the whole top of the skull is blown off like the lid of a box, and the brain forced out. If the ball hits a muscle, it passes through, but if it hits a bone, it shatters it and hurls the pieces in all directions, the consequence being that all whose limbs are struck need amputation, while all who are hit in the body must die. At the same time the sufferings of the wounded are so horrible that it has been necessary to put many of them into straightjackets to save them from their own frantic movements."

FORMALDEHYDE.

Is Useful and Desirable for Sterilization Under Certain Conditions.

The employment of formaldehyde, or its solution, formalin, as a chemical agent for the destruction of bacteria is becoming of far wider application than its earlier use seemed to indicate. Originally its use was largely confined to household and quarantine disinfection, but its value soon appreciated. The simplicity of its application and its reliability soon commended it as a germicide. One certainly would not go so far as to advise the substitution of formaldehyde for heat, steam or boiling water for the purpose of sterilization, but it is a useful and desirable substitute under certain conditions.

The reported boiling of instruments, especially edged ones, soon injures them, while the unequal expansion of steel and nickel causes scaling of the plating of the other instruments. Drs. Reik and Watson, in the last bulletin of the Johns Hopkins hospital, describe an apparatus for formaldehyde sterilization of instruments which has proved most satisfactory.

My apparatus was primarily designed for the sterilization of iodiform gauze, a hitherto serious problem. It may be said that if the gauze as a finished product of the manufacturer was not sterile, it could not be absolutely sterilized without destroying its properties; i. e., without decomposing the iodiform. Fractional sterilization at sufficiently low temperatures is a tedious and untrustworthy process. Iodiform gauze is a satisfactory and widely employed dressing, usually applied directly to wounded surfaces, or for the tamponade of cavities. No question of its asepsis should arise.—Medical Record.

That Is What the Judge Told Finis Campbell This Morning—Other Cases in the Police Court Today.

A Cutting Scrap, Investigated, But There Was Little in It.

Several Fines Assessed by His Honor.

Finis Campbell, colored, was arraigned in the police court this morning on a charge of mistreating his daughter, Jettie.

The judge said the facts seemed to be that the girl was unfortunate enough to have been led astray by a man named Thomas McKay. The father gave the youth a day or two to marry the girl or else get shot, and the time has about expired. In the meantime, he proceeded to dress his vengeance on the daughter, and the court took him to task for this and advised him to get a warrant against McKay for seduction, and if he refused to marry her he would have to go to the penitentiary. McKay, the court said, was willing to marry, but wanted to wait a few days.

His trousseau is not quite ready.

Campbell was fined $5 and costs for striking his daughter, and was recognized in the sum of $100 for his good behavior towards McKay. If he kills the latter, he will have to pay the $100 or go to jail, perhaps both. This would be great satisfaction to McKay, no doubt.

Bud Elrod was fined $5 and costs for a breach of the peace. He and another young man had a difficulty last night on Broadway near Second, and Elrod got the other man down. Joe Roscoe, while trying to separate them, was cut on the hand. So much for the peacemaker. The warrant against the other young man was dismissed.

Doe Pittman and Joe Seebree, for a breach of the peace, was fined $5 and costs by confession.

A breach of the peace case against Sam Clark, colored, was dismissed, the prosecuting witness failing to appear.

A. Marcoffsky and G. W. Forshee were charged with a breach of the peace, but there was no evidence against the former. The latter was fined $3 and costs.

A young man named Hubbard was fined $10 and costs for being drunk and disorderly. He pleaded guilty.

GOT THE PHAETON.

Writ of Delivery Served on the Sheriff by the Coroner.

The phaeton was then taken from the possession of the sheriff, and the controversy will be adjusted at the approaching term of court. Sheriff Rogers was protesting in levying on the vehicle by an indomitable bond.

A FEW THINGS CONCERNING CHAPERONES.

There are a few pointers concerning this indispensable adjunct of good society which seems to be little understood by a number of people. A party of young people wish to go somewhere—picnic, ball, boating, be it what it will—the first thought is of the chaperone. In large cities the codes of society are so well known by its followers there is never such an unpardonable offense as a mistake being made. But in the smaller towns where strictures of what is correct are comparatively a new thing, where the parents never dreamed of chaperones and the girls have to be their own educators some very absurd mistakes are made, mistakes so ludicrous that the "great world" would laugh—politely of course—but laugh and shrug their shoulders at the gaucherie. For instance, how often we read of the beautiful Mrs. Newell a bride of only a few weeks acting as chaperone. Nothing could be worse. In fact the bride of a year cannot act as chaperone, on the contrary, she herself must be chaperoned on all occasions of the least note. To illustrate the severity of these rules: A very beautiful widow who spends her winters in New York had an invitation to go yachting; a day's cruise around the bay. She is about 35, with two children in school, and the owner of the yacht was old enough to be her father—a great swell who visits England and hobnobs with the Prince of Wales. The Prince had taken a great fancy to his last yacht and induced him to sell it, so this was a new one, even finer than the other. It was an invitation half New York would have "given their heads" for, so it must be accepted, but the chaperone! No trouble to have secured a dozen as young or a little older than herself, but as the host was quite old the duenna must be elderly also because you see it was to be only a very small party, the host, the pretty widow, the chaperone and a staid, dignified gentleman to entertain her. Of course she was found, but even in Greater New York a very elderly lady who would enjoy a day's tossing on the Atlantic is a rara avis. So you see the rich have their own troubles as well as the poor, and they are often more dreadful because they are only bugaboos. But the slightest breach would stamp them "bad form," and the words "mauvais honte" is to polite society something as dreadfully awful as the "Bodie man" to the bad little boy. An elderly maiden lady can only act as chaperone when she, to use a common phrase "wouldn't look at a man." As long as "not available" is only when she scorns the advances of anything masculine that she could exercise the proper vigilance over her charges; always keeping her weather eye severely open. These thousand little things which one must understand if they attempt to play society and be thoroughly conversant with the ways of the polite world are, to tell the truth, a horrid bore and a nuisance; still it has to be endured, it is the "noblesse oblige" that gives prestige and tone; that outward and visible sign which stamps you perfect man or woman of the world.

A PLAGUE.

Grasshoppers Have Stripped Everything in Graves County.

Now Rooting on Fences and Telegraph Poles Waiting for Fall Planting.

Mayfield, Ky., Aug. 13.—Grasshoppers are taking the crops of this county. Some of the cornfields are stripped of every blade of fodder and much of the corn in the ear is completely ruined. Clover fields are a total loss to the farmers, also many of the pea patches.

Fences along the roads are literally covered with the striped hoppers and telephone poles are adorned from base to apex with swarms of the pests. The farmers say in traveling along the roads the grasshoppers will fly so thick across the road as to completely hide the view.

There seems no way for them to rid their fields of the plague, and their present crop will prove a great loss from the ravages of grasshoppers. No wheat can be planted here this fall without subjecting it to total ruin, as the grasshoppers would cut every blade which shows itself above ground. The oldest farmers say they never saw such a plague before.

INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE.

The United States civil service commission announces that an examination will be held for the internal revenue service in this city on some date between the 1st and 15th of October, 1898. All persons who desire to be examined should apply to the secretary of the board of examiners at (Wensboro, Ky.), for application blanks and full information relative to the scope of the examination. Applications on form 101 must be filed in complete form with the secretary of the board prior to the hour of closing business on September 1; otherwise, the applicant cannot be examined. Soon after filing applications applicants will be notified as to the exact date of the examination.

Respectfully,
S. W. ADAMS, Secretary C. S. B.

GLADSTONE.

What This Greatest of Statesmen Sometimes Talked About.

Gladstone was probably the best talker of his time. His astonishing vivacity made him one of the most lively and interesting of companions, although sometimes his faculty for being interested in anything disappointed those who met at his table; for his mind was very eager, and centered itself upon the most trivial as upon the gravest object of human interest. At a breakfast at Downing street some years ago Mr. Chevallier, the French economist, with M. de Lavoye and others were invited to meet Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Bright. The conversation, by some unlucky twist, happened to turn upon chirography. Mr. Bright is said to have started it by remarking that the charges of chirographists were excessive. Mr. Gladstone accordingly joined in, and to the utter bewilderment of the foreign guests the whole of the conversation at that breakfast was devoted to a vehement discussion on the extraction of corns and the prices charged for the operation.

M. Chevallier picked up his ears when he first heard "corns," thinking he was about to hear some reflection as to the effect of the corn laws on agriculture, but the hope vanished as soon as it was raised; chirography and chirography alone reigned supreme. The distinguished guests left, greatly marveling at the kind of conversation to which they had been invited. On another occasion, on the eve of Lord Wolesley's departure for Egypt, Mr. Gladstone mortified his guests, who included Lord Wolesley, by talking obstinately about nothing but the best binding for books.

SURGERY ON SNAKES.

Operating on the Eyes of a Vicious and Poisonous Cobra.

The London Sketch draws attention to operations on snakes at Bombay. Snakes in captivity, it seems, sometimes find difficulty in getting rid of the skin which is shed every year, and an Australian diamond snake in the Bombay museum appeared likely to succumb. It was quite blind, and refused all food.

A European sympathizer, therefore, pressed the native keeper into service to hold the snake, and himself with a pair of sharp-pointed scissors performed the delicate and risky operation of clipping away the membrane which adhered to the eyes.

J. M. Phipson, editor of the Journal of the Bombay Natural History society, performed a far more dangerous operation a couple of years ago. His patient was a large hamadryad, or king cobra, the most vicious and poisonous of all Indian snakes, and a most powerful creature to boot.

Mr. Phipson gripped the king cobra round the neck, and a native literally held on for his dear life further down, and when the reptile's struggles were over, a third man, armed with a surgeon's scalpel, removed eight layers of membrane from each eye.

A serious accident which occurred at Katterjohn's Brickyard.

This morning soon after he went to work, the link belt broke and one end of it struck him a terrific blow across the forehead. He was rendered unconscious and Dr. Brooks was called. He found a very bad wound and one which may have fractured the skull.

If the blow had been on the other part of the head, it would have killed him instantly, according to the doctor.
